PATRONS DEDICATE NEW HIGH SCHOOL

Of Bethel Township Residents Hold Mass Meeting At New Building At Forgy. 1

Dr. W. O. Thompson and Professor Graham Deliver Addresses.

-List Of Exercises.

Patrons of Bethel township schools dedicated their handsome new $30,000 high school building at Forgy, on Thursday, with an all-day mass meeting, in which every school in the town-ship was represented. Dr. W. O. Thompson, of the Ohio State Univerdelivered the dedicatory address sity, delivered the dedicatory address in the afternoon, and Prof. A. B. Graham, also of the Ohio State University, gave an address in the morning on the agricultural work now being done at the state institution.

In his address, Prof. Graham urged the board to provide another teacher in the high school, as the superintendent could not do good work when having to be hampered by teaching a room in the high school. He was thus deprived of many visits to the district schools that should be made.

Dr. Thompson made an elequent ad-

Dr. Thompson made an eloquent address and urged the board and the people to spare no nieurs in making Bethell ownship schools the best in the state of Ohio in rural communities. He complimented the people very highly on the handsome new school building.

At noon a basket dinner was served. During the afternoon the Olive Branch baseball team defeated the Nelson's Business College team by a score of 9 to 6. The literary program for the day opened with a song of welcome by dress and urged the board and the Business College team by a score of 9 to 6. The literary program for the day opened with a song of welcome by all the pupils of the township. After the devotional services read by Rev. J. E. Barnhart, Howard Scarff, of Mt. Pleasant, gave the opening recitation. A vocal duet was rendered by Rachel Burns and Geneva Myers, of the Centennial school. Other numbers on the program were doll drills by the primary pupils of the Helmer school; song by the primary pupils of the Helmer school; song by the primary pupils of the Medway school, and a song by an octet from the township high school; a play entitled "The Gumtown Woman's Association," by the Union pupils; recitation by the Union pupils; recitation by the Donnelsville school; song, "Miller's Woolng," by the high school; recitation by Venoris' Keeton, of the Valley; song by a quartet of girls from Tecumsch; song by the intermediate pupils of Donnelsville; plano rendition by Miss Lulu McOwen; song by the intermediato pupils of Medway; address by Prof. A. B. Graham; plano solo, Miss McMahon; song, "Italia," by the high school; recitation, Marie Frantz, of Advance; Japanese song, by the high school; recitation Marie Frantz, of Advance; Japanese song, by the intermediate 'pupils of Bethel: recitations by Donnelsville primary pupils; song by the primary pupils of Mt. by the pupils of Bethel; recitations by Donnelsville primary pu-pils; song by the primary pupils of Mt. Plensant; recitation by Miss Hettle Zellar of the high school; a May-pole Zellar of the high school; a May-pole drill by the elementary pupils of Olive Branch; song by the primary pupils of Valley school; song, "Gloria," high school; song by the high school duartot; address by Dr. W. O. Thompson; song by high school.

The annual commencement exercises of the high school will be held this evening.